Digital marketing professional specializing in marketing operations, ecommerce systems, and revenue-driving digital infrastructure. Builds and optimizes CRM workflows, manages multi-site ecommerce environments, and owns full-funnel lead generation systems — bridging marketing strategy and technical execution to drive pipeline performance and sales growth.

EXPERIENCE

Digital Marketing & Ecommerce Specialist
Jun 2023 – Present
Edwards Garment

- Own and operate EdwardsGarment.com, UniformAdvisors.com, and EdwardsX.com — overseeing content strategy, product data, ERP integrations, and site performance across all three properties.
- Architect and manage the full digital lead generation system, growing qualified leads 107% (366 in 2023 to 758 in 2025) through strategic ownership of paid search, SEO, and conversion optimization.
- Restructure digital ad spend strategy, eliminating $50K in agency fees and reallocating an additional $50K in budget — nearly doubling lead output while reducing cost per acquisition.
- Build and maintain advanced HubSpot CRM and marketing automation workflows, customizing the platform to align with sales pipeline stages, automate lead routing, trigger internal alerts, and support distributor and rep follow-up sequences.
- Manage ecommerce product data, backend integrations, and ERP data syncs to maintain accurate inventory, pricing, and content across all digital channels.
- Represent the brand at national industry events, building distributor relationships and gathering intelligence to inform digital strategy.

Founder
Mar 2025 – Present
Lake Michigan Marketing

- Building end-to-end digital systems for small businesses — connecting CRM, marketing automation, and lead generation infrastructure using GoHighLevel to drive measurable sales outcomes.
- Developing a web platform independently using AI-assisted development tools and GitHub, with hands-on experience in project hosting, domain management, DNS configuration, and deployment workflows.
- Actively testing and integrating AI tools across marketing and development workflows to improve efficiency, accelerate output, and stay ahead of emerging technology trends.

Marketing Intern
Oct 2022 – Apr 2023
Homer Stryker MD School of Medicine

- Executed Mailchimp campaigns reaching 6,000+ potential donors; led events for 300+ attendees; produced social and digital display content.

Digital Marketing Consultant
Jan – Mar 2023
Radio Flyer — Academic Consulting Project

- Developed a full-funnel campaign strategy covering awareness, consideration, and conversion — ranked 12th of 242 teams nationally.
